OCTOBER 21, 2024

Good morning. Waltham!

Cool morning, Waltham.

Early voting began this past weekend. Do you know if you are registered or where the polling places are? Who is running for office, and what questions are on the ballot? Our 2024 Election Guide puts this information at your fingertips. Also, be sure to register for our Community Forum on Nov. 9. Meet our team and Ellen Clegg, our distinguished speaker, and enjoy delicious Rancatore's ice cream, Del's coffee, Guatemalan pastries and more from Waltham's fabulous food world!

Waltham homecoming parade returns. After a hiatus, Waltham will have a homecoming parade complete with floats this Saturday, Oct. 26. Waltham High's varsity football team is scheduled to play Newton South High.

Fall splendor. With last week's cold snap, the autumn foliage reached intense hues of gold and crimson this weekend. Check out our photo gallery of some fall scenes from around town.

Superintendent holds two more community forums this week. Waltham Public Schools Superintendent Marisa Mendonsa continues her series of community forums with two more coming up this month. One is set for today, Oct. 21, 6:30 p.m., at Plympton Elementary School.

MBTA bus involved in crash outside Market Basket. An MBTA bus carrying six passengers was involved in a motor vehicle collision outside Market Basket just before 7 p.m. on Saturday. The other vehicle involved in the crash was a white 2009 Honda Accord.

City's first speed cushion to be installed on Crescent Street. Residents of Ward 8 crowded into the City Council chamber last week to hear the latest news in their ongoing struggle to stop speeding traffic on Crescent Street.

Main Street McDonald's looks to open drive-thru 24/7. McDonald's is asking the city to keep its drive-thru open round-the-clock as part of a larger plan for its Main Street location.

City to seek more input on Moody Street plan before taking action. The Traffic Commission last week declined to take action on a study outlining proposals to restrict vehicles on Main Street and to create a pedestrian mall, deciding instead to get more public opinion before taking action.

What's new at the Rose Art Museum. The Rose Art Museum at Brandeis University is among the nation's premier university museums dedicated to 20th and 21st century art. It's fall exhibits include shows by rising artist Hugh Hayden, Roy Lichtenstein works and photo portraiture from the museum's collection.

REACH provides resources on domestic violence. October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. The nonprofit organization provided local resources available to individuals experiencing domestic violence.

Charles River Food Co-op seeks new members. The co-op is running a "Member Bring a Member"

Charles River Food Co-op seeks new members. The co-op is running a "bring a member" campaign to grow its ranks now through Oct. 31. The member and worker-owned initiative aims to bring fresh, eco-friendly, locally sourced, diverse foods to Waltham.
